- We will contact you mainly by Rezoomo System, mobile phone and email. 3. How will the selection process be run?

- You must complete the official Rezoomo application in full. If you do not complete the application in full your application may not be submitted to the selection board for consideration and subsequent interview (if applicable).
- A selection board of senior managers will assess your application against the eligibility criteria and post specific requirements to see how your individual experience and skills match the needs of the post. The criteria for the selection exercise are based on the requirements of the post as outlined in the job specification. Therefore it is very important that you think about your experience in light of those requirements.
- There may be a number of stages of selection and short-listing or a ranking exercise may take place. A ranking exercise is an assessment that may be carried out on the basis of information supplied in your application. The criteria for ranking are based on the requirements of the post as outlined in the eligibility criteria, post specific requirements and skills, competencies and/or knowledge section of the job specification. Therefore it is very important that you think about your experience in light of those requirements. Those successful at the ranking stage of this process (where applied) will be placed on an order of merit and will be called to interview in ‘bands’ depending on the service needs of the organisation
- Any applicant who did not meet the eligibility criteria and/or post specific requirements/ who was not shortlisted will be informed of that decision and the reason why.
- Candidates who have been shortlisted will be called to interview.
- Any candidate invited to interview will be given more details regarding the interview at a later date.
- Candidates who are successful at interview will be placed on a panel in order of merit.
- We will offer the posts to the candidates with the highest scores on the panel.
- If a candidate declines the post we will offer it to the next highest scoring candidate etc.

We would like to highlight to you that interviews form a part of the selection process. The IEHG/WGH must be satisfied that it has a full and comprehensive suite of references which assures it that the applicant's past performance and behaviours are appropriate to the post. The IEHG/WGH determines the merit, appropriateness and relevance of references. The IEHG/WGH reserves the right to remove candidates from specific recruitment panels and retract job offers if satisfactory clearances (e.g. past /current employment references, security clearances) cannot be obtained or are unsatisfactory. All previous employers may be contacted for reference purposes. Please note the IEHG/WGH may retract a job offer if sufficient satisfactory references cannot be obtained in a time frame congruent with service need. The IEHG/WGH reserves the right to retract a job offer should the successful candidate be unable to fulfil the provisions / criteria of the specific post in line with service need.

4. Formation of Panels

What is a panel?

A panel is a list of candidates successful at interview placed in order of merit. Candidates are awarded a mark during the interview process and the candidate who scores the highest mark is placed first on the panel. Subsequent vacancies are then expressed to the panel in order of merit. If the number one successful candidate that expressed an interest on the panel refuses the job offer, it is then offered to the second candidate who expressed interest on the panel. Once a panel is formed, it remains in existence for 1 year and may be extended.

Marking System

Candidates are given marks for skill areas during the interview.

Where candidates score the same marks a further ranking process will apply. A previously agreed skill area of the interview will be chosen to further rank successful candidates e.g. Karen and Mary are both successful at interview. They both score 421 at interview, which would place them at joint number 3 on the panel.

If Professional Knowledge has been the secondary ranking area chosen then the candidate who has scored higher in this area and expressed an interest will receive the first job offer.

Karen scored 69 in the Professional Knowledge element and Mary scored 68. Karen will be number 3 a. on the panel and Mary will be number 3 b. on the panel.

Where candidates have the same mark on the secondary ranking, an additional ranking will be applied and so forth.

Please note in order to be deemed successful for a panel you must be awarded a minimum score of 40 for each competency area.

Future panels

Please note that candidates successful at interview and placed on the panel formed through this campaign may not be considered as applicants for any supplementary campaigns to add to this panel.

Please note the IEHG/WGH reserves the right to contact all available successful candidates in the event that panels are exhausted. The IEHG/WGH reserves the right to extend the life of the panel to fill specified purpose and / or permanent vacancies that may arise. The IEHG/WGH may modify panel management rules in line with service need during the life time of the panel and will notify all remaining candidates of any changes.

5. Acceptance / Declination of a Job Offer

The time lines and panel management rules (i.e. how posts are offered) for each individual post will be included in the email communication sent to you for each individual post which arises and is relevant to your order of merit on the panel.

Please see Appendix 4 for a full outline of the panel management rules.

6. Security Clearance

All applicants will need to apply for a vetting disclosure from the National Vetting Bureau. This process will be initiated by IEHG/WGH for the confirmed successful candidate recommended for the post. Please see Appendix 2 for more information on international clearances.

7. Appeal Procedures

Appointments in the IEHG/WGH are made under a recruitment license and are subject to Code of Practice established by the Commission for Public Service Appointments (CPSA). The Code of Practice provides that candidates may make a request for review (see section 7 of the Code) OR make a complaint (see Section 8 of the Code) of any part of the appointment process that they feel is unfair or has been applied unfairly to them. These two forms of review procedure are mutually exclusive. Before submitting a request for review candidates should determine which procedure is appropriate to their particular circumstances.

The procedures allow for matters to be resolved on an informal basis and candidates are advised to avail of the informal process before making use of the formal review procedure. Candidates should in the first instance make an informal appeal to Human Resources Manager at Wexford General Hospital (Edward.long@hse.ie) Please note that informal appeals prior to interview must be submitted within 2 working days of receipt of a decision. Informal appeals after interview must be submitted within 5 working days of notification of a decision.
