

Clinical Engineering Technician (Permanent & Full Time)

Applications are invited from suitably qualified persons for the above vacancy.

The role of the Clinical Engineering Technician is to support the hospital's mission 'to deliver exceptional patient care in a manner that is equitable and transparent in its service delivery, sensitive and responsive to those availing of its service, and supportive of the staff entrusted with its delivery.' The Clinical Engineering Technician will be involved in the direct provision of Clinical Engineering Services throughout the hospital. To contribute significantly to the maintenance, and ongoing support of the Clinical Engineering Department, Computerised Equipment Management System for the hospital ensuring a holistic system. Be able to take direction, meet goals / targets as and when necessary, ensuring service is delivered according to best practice and all current legislative safety standards and safe practices are adhered to.

The candidate must possess the following on the latest date for receiving completed application forms for the office:

- Hold as a minimum a recognised qualification at National Framework of Qualifications (NFQ), Level 7 or Higher, in one of the following engineering disciplines:
 - Electronic
 - Electrical
 - Instrument Physics
 - Industrial Instrumentation
 - Applied Physics
 - Mechanical
 - Mechatronic
 - Biomedical Engineering
- Candidates must possess the requisite knowledge and ability (including a high standard of suitability and administrative capacity) for the proper discharge of the duties of office.
- Previous experience working in a healthcare environment
- Possess knowledge of medical equipment
- Have good problem solving and decision-making skills and the ability to develop solutions to complex problems.
- Ability to operate as part of a multidisciplinary team
- Strong IT skills
- Understanding of networks wireless and wired within the medical device environment

Due to the urgent requirement of this post interviews will take place week beginning Monday 24th October, 2022. This means that you may be called forward for interview at very short notice.

Why Working at the National Rehabilitation University Hospital

The NRH is a dynamic, multi-disciplinary, inclusive and friendly environment which offers an opportunity of working in a new world class, state of the Art Hospital Facility. The NRH is a University Teaching Hospital with onsite Academic and Research Centre. The NRH are committed to ensuring that all staff reach their full potential during their employment at the Hospital. and provides access to training, education and Continued Professional Development.

Some of the other benefits we offer as an Organisation includes:

*On-site Free Car Parking
Access to Public Transport
Public Service Pension Scheme
Staff Restaurant (subsidised) and Coffee
Shop facilities on-site
Flexible Working Arrangements*

*Shorter Working Year Scheme
Occupational Health Service
Staff Support & Wellbeing Initiatives
Savings Schemes
Bike to Work Scheme
Tax Saver Travel Scheme*

Applicants for the above post should submit a letter of application and Curriculum Vitae to arrive not later than 12:00 noon on Wednesday 12th October, 2022 to Patrizia Cerruti, Human Resource Department or email patrizia.cerruti@nrh.ie Job descriptions are available on request Patrizia Cerruti or at www.nrh.ie/careers. For informal enquiries, please contact Mr. David Farrell, Senior Clinical Engineering Technician by email david.farrell@nrh.ie.

Shortlisting will be carried out on the basis of the information supplied in your CV. The criteria for Shortlisting are based on the requirements of the post as outlined above. Failure to include information regarding these requirements may result in you not being called forward for the next stage of the selection process.

We are an Equal Opportunities Employer and support a smoke-free workplace policy.